

Integrative Oncology Research Course Fall Session

Goals of the module

The first goal of the module is to teach Ayurvedic practitioners how to identify good cases from their practice and write a good case report for publication.

The second goal is to teach Ayurvedic practitioners how to audit their practice and improve delivery of care to their patients.

The third goal is to give an overview of N-1 Clinical Trials.

Thursday September 5, 2024

10:00-10:30AM EST (7:30-8:00PM India time)

- Dr. Oluwadamilola Olaku (Office of Cancer Complementary and Alternative Medicine, NCI)-History and Roles of Case Reports

10:30-11:30AM EST (8:00-9:00PM India time)

- Dr. David Riley (Integrative Medicine Institute, Portland, Oregon)- Evidence Based Case Report and CARE

11:30AM-12:00PM EST (9:00-9:30PM India time)

- Dr. Julia Arnold (Office of Cancer Complementary and Alternative Medicine, NCI) and Dr. Girish Tillu (Assistant Professor, Department of Health Sciences, Savitribai Phule Pune University, Pune, India)- CASE Reports: Journal of Ayurveda and Integrative Medicine (JAIM) Editors' perspectives.

Friday September 6, 2024

10:30-11:30AM EST (8:00-9:00PM India time)

- Dr. Oluwadamilola Olaku (Office of Cancer Complementary and Alternative Medicine, NCI)- The Utility and Processes of Clinical Audits

11:30AM-12:30PM EST (9:00-10:00PM India time)

- Dr. Sunita Vohra (Faculty of Medicine and Dentistry, University of Alberta, Canada)- N-Of-1 Trials: building rigorous evidence with each patient seen.